Resinol Soap keeps skins fair in spite of wintry winds The soothing, healing medi-cation in Resinol Soap which is so helpful in clearing poorcomplex-ions, is equally dependable for protecting delicate skins from the havoc of winter's wind and cold. To use Resinol Soap regularly for the toilet is usually to make sure that one's complexion will come through the cold weather unharmed, and that the hands will be kept free from redness, roughness and chapping. If you already suffer from painful and unsightly chapping, a little Resinol Ointment will usually afford complete relief. Resince Shaving Stick souther and refreshes the face,

ANNOUNCES WAGE BOOST

effective today, has been granted by the Washington Steel and Ordnance Company

Washington Steel and Ordnance Company to the machine shop employes at its plant at Glesboro Point. More than 1,000 inen will benefit by the advance.

For many months the plant has been working on a twenty-four-hour day basis manufacturing shells for the belligerent nations of Europe, three shitts of workmen being employed.

Formal announcement of the advance in wages has been made by the company as follows:

"The Washington Steel and Ordnance Company has announced to the men in its machine shops that, beginning February 1, there will be a 10 per cent general increase in wages. All departments at the steel works are busy and working with a full complement of men, and it is figured that with this last increase in wages to machinists, skilled mechanics are receiving wages higher than those at any other similar works in the country."

We guarantee that the new issue is manufactured by the ame printers and binders as the more expensive issue; and that the fine India paper, the press work and illustrations, the bindings and every detail of this new issue are of the best quality, as you may see for yourself wherever the volumes in the different bindings are on view; or by the simple act of forwarding to us your name and address with one dollar enclosed. Remember, this dollar comes back to you together with the shipping charges which you pay, if you are not completely satisfied with your bargain.

If you keep the set, you have then to pay only three dollars a month, ten cents a day for 21 months, and this great work, standard since 1768—a magnificent library in itself, and the treasured possession of almost every English writer or scholar for a century and a half, becomes your possession in its newest and latest issue—the greatest work of reference most convenient encyclopaedia ever issued. The whole 29 volumes weigh now only 52 pounds, as against 240 pounds for the Cambridge University issue on ordinary paper. You can take one of these new volumes, which is not larger than an ordinary novel, and hold it in one hand and read it for hours without tiring. We regard it and those who have seen and compared the two issues likewise regard it as a miracle of book-making. The cheaper issue is much more convenient. Come and see it or better still, write us enclosing one dollar with your name with the coupon below checked opposite "2." For more information send the coupon checked
